Hi,

Ok I have had a few emails from all of you fine people asking me to contact the guys behind Digital Profit Master with some FAQ's.

Guess what? They responded..

Here goes:

Q. Will this product show me how to create a product from start to finish?

A. Yes Digital Profit Master will show you from start to finish how to create your very own digital product.

Q. Is it newbie friendly?

A. Yes most certainly, DPM lays everything out in a step by step manner, so it is definitely newbie friendly.

Q. What if I need help?

A. Don't worry we have you covered with dedicated support, we will give you all the help you need to make this work.

Q. I can't believe you are giving so much away for so little. What's the catch?

A. No catch, we want to help you succeed and this is our way of over-delivering.

Q. Is the discount going beyond launch week?

A. No unfortunately, we can only hold the price during this week and it ends on Sunday and the price will significantly increase.

Well there you have it. I'm sure now you will be joining John and Dan and jumping on-board with this.
